HOUSE RULES

Visit Our Website www.tavistockcc.org

Our Club has a reputation for being gracious and friendly. We are a family Club and as members of a big family, each should strive to respect the rights and privileges of the other. These rules, therefore, are not an attempt to instruct our members and their families in matters of customary and respectable conduct, but to point out certain expectations of everyone in our Club environment that otherwise might be overlooked. Always be aware that members in our Club are judged by their attitude and cooperation with the rules.

DRESS CODE:

Members, their children, and guests should always dress according to the dictates of good taste and in keeping with the character of our fine Club. Whether in the Clubhouse or on the golf course, one's attire must reflect a high degree of respect for our fellow members and our guests. Members are responsible, not only for themselves, but for the dress of their children and their guests as well. Although our Club caters to varying degrees of formality, it is possible to dress so that no one is offended. No one is permitted access to the golf course or clubhouse unless in full conformance with the Dress Code. Our staff has been instructed to inform anyone who is improperly attired. If informed by the staff that one's dress is improper, the staff member is not to be questioned. Denim / Jeans are permitted in the Lounge, Terrace, Alexander Findlay Veranda, Alexander Findlay Bar, Alexander Findlay Wine Room, Samuel E. Fulton Grille Room, and Golf Shop only. Frayed, ripped, faded, excessively loose, or soiled denim is not permitted. Golf attire is defined as follows: Men may wear full-length trousers or conservatively tailored shorts no more than 3" above or below the knee; shirts must be tucked in and have sleeves and a collar (except for the approved short or long sleeve mock turtleneck designed for golf). Denim is permitted in designated areas of the clubhouse but, cargo shorts / pants are not permitted in any area of the Clubhouse. Women may wear slacks, shorts, or skirts; shorts and skirts must be no higher than 4" above the top of the knee. Shirts may be sleeveless or collarless as long as they are designed for golf. Business casual is defined as a collared shirt and Khaki style pants. Golf shirts are to be tucked in while in the Clubhouse or on the golf course. Men's headwear should be removed within the confines of the Clubhouse, which excludes the Golf Shop. Men's short sleeved button-down square cut bottom (cut and sewn) shirts to be worn as designed which is outside of trousers or shorts and not tucked in ("Tommy Bahama" style) are permitted in the Clubhouse. Inappropriate clothing includes that which is torn, frayed, ripped, faded, excessively loose, or soiled denim. T-shirts, tank tops, sweatpants, cargo shorts, sweat suits and swimsuits are not permitted. Questions may be directed in writing to the House Committee. The Infractions Committee will adjudicate Dress Code disputes. Although common sense will usually dictate what the appropriate attire is, the following are offered as guidelines:
